Building an Integrative Model for Your Practice

The goal of the Integrative Dermatology Symposium is to support your care of patients with common skin concerns to dermatology diseases to aesthetics. The event will include educational sessions with practical takeaways, interdisciplinary panels, industry trends, and best practices related to all aspects of skin care. Hear from experts in the practices of Western, Naturopathic, Ayurvedic, and Traditional Chinese Medicine from around the world. Join over 300 colleagues from a variety of disciplines, including acupuncturists, Ayurveda practitioners, dermatologists, family practice physicians, naturopathic doctors, nurses, osteopathic doctors, pediatricians, and physician assistants.

Supported by:

AbbVie, Burt's Bees, Emerson Ecologics & Wellevate, Microbiome Labs, Pfizer, Sanofi Genzyme and Regeneron
